Highlights of the New CRTLE Launch and Open House

We had a great turn out at the CRTLE Launch and Open House with over 50 faculty, staff, and administrators in attendance. We are thrilled to be on our way to supporting research, teaching, and learning at the Center for our valued faculty and GTAs. If you missed the launch and open house, stop by to visit at your convenience and/or contact us! For more about the CRTLE Open House, see the Shorthorn article at the link below.

Call for Faculty Mentors!

We surveyed new faculty and there are many who would like to work one-to-one with an experienced faculty mentor. The mentor will be matched with an appropriate faculty member (tenured, tenure track or non-tenure track) and provide support/advice for new faculty as they progress towards successful research, teaching, and service at UTA. If you fit this description and would like to be a faculty mentor, please click on the link HERE.

» Class of 2018-2019 New Faculty Reunion and Networking II

Wednesday, March 6th 10:00 A.M. - 11:30 A.M. Nedderman Hall 246

New faculty who joined UTA in 2018-2019 are invited to return for networking and continuing professional advancement. Refreshments will be served.

New Faculty Class of 2018-2019

The CRTLE hosted our first networking, professional advancement, and reunion for faculty who joined UTA during the 2018-19 year on January 25. We are hosting a second event for new faculty on March 6. Whether you attended the first reunion event or not, please join us! The event will feature discussion, exchange of teaching and research ideas, and professional advancement activities.

Want to Innovate Your Teaching Using Technology?

Faculty interested in innovating their teaching with technology and/or developing their professional identity are invited for individual or small group consultation sessions with Matthew Crosslin or Justin Dellinger of CRTLE. Topic areas include using social media, designing online or blended learning, integrating open educational resource (OER) materials, as well as developing a digital identity and scholarship. They can be reached a CRTLE@uta.edu.

» New Faculty 2017-18 and 2018-19 Mentor Survey and Sign-up

It's not too late to join the New Faculty Mentoring program! If you are a new faculty member interested in receiving guidance from an experienced faculty Mentor, please complete this short survey sign-up form.

About the Center

The UTA Center for Research on Teaching and Learning Excellence (CRTLE) engages faculty, graduate teaching assistants, and community partners in research and innovative, high impact practices to enhance teaching and learning (AAC&U, 2008). The Center's mission embraces rigorous, evidence-based scholarship on teaching to promote high levels of reasoning and meaningful learning among students. The CRTLE brings together scholars from all UTA disciplines to work on initiatives that integrate pedagogically sound practices, digital and innovative technologies, community engagement, and professional development.
