Peer Observation of Teaching

Training Session with Certificate

Thursday, February 10, 2022

1:00 PM - 3:00 PM

105 Trinity Hall or via Microsoft Teams

CRTLE will host a training session for faculty for both informal consultations/observations on teaching and on conducting and completing the proper documentation for the official Peer Observation of Teaching requirement of the UT System. Faculty will learn observation skills and techniques for providing useful and meaningful feedback to colleagues and ways to promote their teaching effectiveness. A certificate of completion will be provided to attendees to indicate preparation as a Certified Peer Observer. The option to attend remotely is available; please indicate on the RSVP form. Refreshments provided to in-person attendees.

Promoting Accessibility and Learning Equity

Did you know?

During an emergency evacuation, you cannot use the elevator?

During emergency evacuations it is recommended that you do not use the elevator. This is information we already know.

However, if you have any students who have a physical disability and use the elevator, you must have an alternative emergency exit plan for them. You should be prepared and make this plan as soon as possible in case of an emergency.

For more information or help on how to make this emergency evacuation plan, use this guide here by the National Fire Protection Association to build your evacuation plan.
