AI and CHATGPT in Teaching and Learning

On behalf of University Analytics and in cooperation with the 13th International Learning Analytics and Knowledge Conference

Wednesday, March 15

1:00 pm - 3:00 pm

Trinity Hall Room 205

Presenters: Dr. Srecko Joksimovic and Dr. Vita Kovanovic, University of South Australia

Title: Teaching and Learning in the age of AI: What are the Opportunities?

The recent announcement of ChatGPT attracted particular attention from educators and educational policymakers, who recognized its potential to significantly improve but also deteriorate current educational systems. In this workshop, we will explore the potential of large language models and generative artificial intelligence, more broadly, in tertiary education. We will discuss potential positive uses of AI in teaching & learning and some of how its potentially negative effects can be mitigated.

Engaging the Disengaged: A Teaching Model of Student Engagement

Series Session 2

Thursday, March 23

12:00 pm - 1:00 pm

CRTLE Classroom Trinity Hall Room 105

With the option to join online in Teams

Presented by: Dr. Timothy Ponce

Have your students "checked out" of doing activities and assignments, or are they not showing up, ghosting you or others in their classes? Then join this session where Dr. Ponce will share his MDE (Motivate, Develop, Empathize) model of student engagement. Founded on the principles of mentorship, the MDE model invites teachers and students to consider the personal learning context and how that context impacts transference of knowledge. Lunch provided for in-person attendees.

CRTLE Faculty Lounge

Using Outcomes in Canvas

Friday, March 24

12:00 pm - 1:00 pm

CRTLE Classroom Trinity Hall Room 105

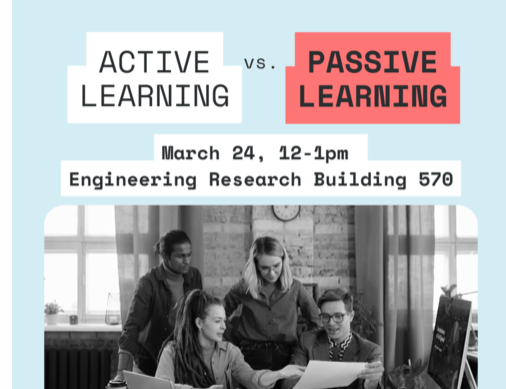

With the option to join online in Microsoft Teams

Presenters: Dr. Bonnie Boardman, Professor of Instruction, Industrial, Manufacturing and Systems Engineering, CRTLE Faculty Facilitator
Brittany Usman, Instructional Designer, Center for Distance Education

Did you know that there is a Learning Mastery Grade Book in Canvas that will give you a visual of how your students are performing relative to your student outcomes? During this CRTLE Faculty Lounge you will see how to add reusable outcomes to Canvas, how to use them in rubrics, and how to get a report at the end of the semester on how your students performed. You will also see different examples of how these Canvas Outcomes are being used by units on campus.

The CRTLE Faculty Lounge, led by Faculty Facilitators and/or CRTLE Team members, features unique topics, workshops, informal conversation, and exchange of great teaching ideas. Lunch provided for in-person attendees

What is Service Learning?

Service Learning Faculty Networking Event

Monday, March 27

4:00 pm - 6:30 pm

CRTLE Classroom Trinity Hall Room 105

Join us for a fun networking event with service learning faculty across campus! This is an opportunity to reunite with other service learning faculty, share ideas, learn about new programs and initiatives, ask questions, or simply catch up with other like-minded faculty. Curious minds are welcome; you don't need to be teaching with service learning to attend. Open to all faculty and staff at UTA.
