

To Drop or Not to Drop?

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the last day that I can drop a class?

For the Spring 2020 semester, the Drop Deadline is Tuesday, April 28th. Submit your request to your advisor by 4:00pm.

How do I know what my current grade in a class is?

You can find out your current grade by checking Canvas and/or contacting your instructor.

How can I contact my instructor?

You can communicate with your instructor via Canvas, email, and/or during their scheduled virtual office hours.

Is tutoring available?

Yes, tutoring is available online and it's free! Get more info here: University Tutoring and Supplemental Instruction

How will dropping a class impact my academic standing?

Talk to your advisor to discuss academic impacts (degree progress, GPA).

How do I know who my academic advisor is?

If you are a first-year student or undeclared in your major, click here. All other students can find their advisor here.

Where can I find the Drop Form?

Your advisor can provide it to you if you decide to drop a course.

What will my grade be if I drop a course?

For the Spring 2020 semester, all drops submitted between March 17th to April 28th will result in a grade of Q. Q grades do not count towards your GPA or 6-Drop Limit.

Where can I reference the policy information about 3-attempt, the 6-Drop Limit, or the excessive hours policy?

You can find this information in the University Catalog.

How can I find out how my financial aid will be impacted if I drop a class?

Contact the Financial Aid and Scholarships office for more information about how dropping may impact your specific financial aid/scholarships eligibility. You may be able to take summer classes to retain your scholarship eligibility - make sure to talk to a representative about your options.

University Advising Center
uac@uta.edu