

E.H. Hereford University Center and Commons

General Guidelines

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)

Every effort will be made by The Commons & University Center Operations office to ensure that both facilities are accessible to people with disabilities in a manner consistent with the guidelines set forth in the ADA:

- Personal Mobility Devices such as wheelchairs or other mechanized transportation systems will always be allowed and welcomed in the UC and The Commons.
- No pets or animals are allowed in the The Commons or UC other than service animals.
- Any reasonable accommodation that can be made for any service offered in The Commons and UC will be made, given that requests come in a timely fashion.
- When being approached about an accommodation or other issue, a building user cannot be asked about the nature and extent of their disability.
