SCHOLARSHIP OVERVIEW

Beyond Interior Design is a full-service turnkey interior design firm focused on residential and commercial projects grounded in modern luxury and an international influence.

Founded by interior designer and general contractor, Juliana Oliveira, the design firm believes in serving holistically not only to their clients but also their communities and elevating the next generation of interior designers.

Beyond Interior Design champions the power of education and during Women’s History Month, is offering The Women in Design Scholarship to a (1) women student. This is the first scholarship for the design firm in hopes to continue to push forth many ways to serve the design community, especially women aiming to break glass ceilings.

The Women in Interior Design Scholarship awards $2,500 to support the Spring or Fall 2022 academic semesters tuition costs. This scholarship is not a renewable initiative. The Scholarship recipient must hold a GPA of 3.0 or higher throughout their collegiate academic career.
