

The 58th Annual Walter Prescott Webb Lecture Series

Histories of Health, Medicine, and Science in the Global Longue Durée

Wednesday, April 3, 2024

12:00 - 1:00 pm (Virtual Presentation on TEAMS)

join the call here: <http://tinyurl.com/ArpanaNair>

"Be Thankful You Can See!" A Material and Disability History of Health and Disability Seals in the Twentieth Century USA

Aparna Nair
University of Toronto - Scarborough

6:00 - 7:00 pm UTA University Center, Red River

KEYNOTE (in person)

"The Black Atlantic & the History of Medicine in the Longue Durée"

Pablo Gómez - University of Wisconsin - Madison

Thursday, April 4, 2023 9:00 am - 3:00 pm
UTA University Center, Red River

"Capta and Chaos: Early Modern Archives of Black Health and Medicine in the Atlantic Slave Trade Reconsidered"

Elise Mitchell
Princeton University

"A World with No Doctors: Popular Medical Practitioners as Expert Witnesses in New Granada's Bourbon Era"

Lisette Varón Carvajal
Universidad de los Andes,
Bogotá, Colombia

"Shamanic (Dis)ability in Colonial Korea, 1910-45"

H. Yumi Kim
Johns Hopkins University

"Semen, Scientific Necromancy, and the Kenyan National Herd"

Sean Bloch
General Dynamics Information
Technology

Free and Open to the Public

Department of History

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

(817) 272-2861

More info at:

<https://www.uta.edu/history>