

THE 59TH ANNUAL WALTER PRESCOTT WEBB LECTURE SERIES

WAR & VIOLENCE IN WORLD HISTORY

KEYNOTE

James F. Brooks

“Haunted Communities & Disorderly
Partners: the Challenge of Writing
‘Violence’ across Communities”

Wednesday, April 16, 2025

5:30 - 6:30 pm

Central Library, 6th floor

followed by a cocktail reception with light hors d'oeuvres

Thursday, April 17, 2025
Carlisle Academy Room, University Center

Alexander Mikaberidze 9:30 am

“War and Violence in the Age of Napoleon:
A Soldier’s Perspective.”

Sabrina Thomas 2:00 pm

“A Variation on the Violence of War”

Michelle Moyd 10:30 am

"Gendering Transimperial Warscapes:
Multidimensional Effects of the First World War in Africa."

Susannah Ural 3:00 pm

“Lincoln Learning: What Abraham
Lincoln & the War Department
Learned from Black Military Service in the U.S. Civil War”

John W.I. Lee 1:00 pm

“Greek Mercenary Soldiers and the Achaemenid Persian Empire, ca. 450-350 BC”