

Department of Sociology and Anthropology
COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

The background of the entire page is composed of several horizontal bands of geometric patterns. At the top, there are teal and purple triangles pointing up and down. Below that is a band of dark blue circles on a light grey background. The main title is centered over a dark teal band with brown horizontal and vertical lines. Below the title is a band of dark teal with brown 'X' marks and squares. Further down is a band of purple and teal diagonal lines. Below that is a wide band of a red and orange Greek key (meander) pattern. At the bottom, there is a band of teal and purple chevrons with a central dot, and a final band of purple wavy lines.

EXPLORE THE HUMAN EXPERIENCE

SUMMER 2023 COURSES IN
SOCIOLOGY & ANTHROPOLOGY

SOCI 1310INTRODUCTION TO POP CULTURE*ONLINE Dr. David Ardit

This course introduces students to the role of popular culture in American society. It examines culture as a process through which people make symbolic meaning out of the world. The course explores the creation, production, dissemination, reception, and consumption of popular culture.

SOCI 1311INTRODUCTION TO SOCIOLOGY*MTWR 10:30 AM – 12:30 PM*Dr. Jason Shelton

A scientific approach to the analysis and explanation of culture, personality, and social organization. The social processes and mechanisms of interaction involved in the natural process of cultural development, dissemination, assimilation, and the institutions of the group. This course satisfies the UTA core curriculum requirement in Social and Behavioral Sciences.

SOCI 2312SOCIAL PROBLEMS*ONLINE Ms. Faye Hanson-Evans

A survey of contemporary social problems in the United States. Emphasis is on applying different theoretical perspectives and systematic procedures to understand social problems as public issues rather than personal problems. This course satisfies the University of Texas at Arlington core curriculum requirement in Social and Behavioral Sciences.

SOCI 3313Criminology*ONLINE Dr. Sara Skiles-duToit

Crime-related social issues. Defining and measuring crime, surveying major theoretical explanations of criminal behavior, and society's formal responses to crime and criminals.

SOCI 1310

INTRODUCTION TO POP CULTURE

ONLINE Dr. David Arditi

This course introduces students to the role of popular culture in American society. It examines culture as a process through which people make symbolic meaning out of the world. The course explores the creation, production, dissemination, reception, and consumption of popular culture.

SOCI 3336

SOCIAL INEQUALITY

ONLINE Ms. Faye Hanson-Evans

Examines the processes, characteristics, and consequences of social inequality in society. Topics include the social class structure, status groups, and elite power structure as they influence people's life chances.

SOCI 1311

INTRODUCTION TO SOCIOLOGY

ONLINE Dr. Dorothy Kalanzi

A scientific approach to the analysis and explanation of culture, personality, and social organization. The social processes and mechanisms of interaction involved in the natural process of cultural development, dissemination, assimilation, and the institutions of the group. This course satisfies the UTA core curriculum requirement in Social and Behavioral Sciences.

SOCI 3341

SOCIOLOGY OF SPORT

ONLINE Dr. Krystal Beamon

Sociological examination of the institution of sport in U.S. society. By examining selected topics such as sport and socialization, sport and politics, sport and education, the Olympics, race and sport, violence in sport, women in sport, and the business of sport, this course will address the social significance of sport and its function as a major social institution.

ANTH 2322

GLOBAL CULTURES

MTWR 8:00 AM – 10:00 AM

Dr. Ritu Khanduri

Methods and theories of sociocultural anthropology. Examines systems of social organization and cultural meaning in contemporary human societies. Topics include fieldwork, cross-cultural analysis, applied anthropology, and global perspectives on political, economic, and social institutions.

ANTH 4398

ANTHROPOLOGY FIELD SCHOOL

TBA Dr. Ashley Lemke

Offered only during the summer session. Experience in methods of lab research in archaeology. May be repeated for credit if research topic changes.

ANTH 1306

INTRODUCTION TO ANTHROPOLOGY

ONLINE TBA

This course, primarily intended for non-majors and as a first course for students considering majoring in anthropology, provides an overview of the subdisciplines of anthropology: ethnology (cultural anthropology), archaeology, physical (biological) anthropology, and linguistic anthropology.

ANTH 2322

GLOBAL CULTURES

ONLINE Dr. Amy Speier

Methods and theories of sociocultural anthropology. Examines systems of social organization and cultural meaning in contemporary human societies. Topics include fieldwork, cross-cultural analysis, applied anthropology, and global perspectives on political, economic, and social institutions.

ANTH 3366

SEX, GENDER, AND CULTURE

MTWR 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM

Dr. Josephine Ryan

The ways gender and sexuality are culturally constructed. Readings include ethnographies, life histories, and fiction. Debates within anthropology and within specific cultures over maleness and femaleness. Offered as ANTH 3366 and WOMS 3366; credit will be granted only once.

