Example Formatting: bold, _italics_ • Full Screen

★ Please describe in detail what you believe to be your most significant leadership experience. Describe the circumstances of the experience – what made it so significant? What was the nature of the project or activity in which this experience occurred? What was your role, leader or follower? What did you learn about your own strengths or weaknesses that will help make you a better leader and/or what leadership strengths and weaknesses did you observe in others? Explain how you will incorporate what you have learned into your future leadership roles. (Note that a significant experience need not always be a successful one. Our failures often teach us as much as, if not more than, our successes.)
