STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM IN FRANKFURT AND PARIS

Answers to most commonly asked questions about College of Business's NEW Study Abroad Program in Frankfurt and Paris.

When will the program be offered?

The course will be offered as part of UT Arlington's Spring semester. Typically, the class is scheduled to begin in mid-January for 5 days of total classes on campus. Then, we fly to Frankfurt in the week of May 17 where we will study for one week and move to Paris for another week before returning to DFW in late May. Specific dates and times are usually published during the Fall semester preceding the trip.

Where will the classes be held?

The first five classes will be offered on UTA campus. The rest of the classes will be taught in Frankfurt, Germany and Paris, France.

How much will it cost?

The cost is approximately $1900.

What does the above price include? What is not included?

The price includes hotel (in Frankfurt) and home stay (in Paris), orientation, local transportation, English-speaking on-site support, forum with local students, required field trips to businesses, intercultural communication training, a welcome lunch/dinner, and a farewell dinner. It does not include UTA tuition, airfare, or personal expenses for food and entertainment. The airfare is expected to be around $1500.

Will there be any problems in transferring credit?

These are UTA classes taught by UTA faculty to UTA students at an off campus location. Therefore, there will be no issues of transfer of credits.

What courses are offered?

ECON 3303 Money and Banking

ECON 4331 Studies in Economics (for those who took ECON 3303 already)

Each is a three credit hour class and you are allowed to choose one of them, not both.

Where can I get more information about this program?

Contact Professor C.Y. Choi (cychoi@uta.edu) if you have additional questions. There is an application form to fill out and an interview with Dr. Choi that needs to be completed.

Can I get financial aid or scholarship for this program?

Yes, financial aid is available for this program, just as it is available for any semester of your education at UTA. For scholarship information, contact Kelli Anderson (kellia@uta.edu).

In addition, the College of Business also offers scholarships to all eligible students. In prior years, most, if not all, students have secured one or more scholarships.

Finally, all the dates and costs mentioned in this handout are based on best estimates and subject to changes. We do not expect any major changes, but minor changes are very likely.
