

2013-2014 HONORS COLLOQUIA

“Can Boy George Save the Throne?”

Professor Elisabeth Cawthon
Department of History

All Honors students are invited to the first 2013-2014 Honors Colloquium. Dr. Elisabeth Cawthon, English constitutional historian and award-winning teacher, will speak on the recent birth of Prince George Alexander Louis of Cambridge. Professor Cawthon will discuss the legal power and political relevance of the modern British monarchy, as well as how the Royals continue to function as fuel for media sensation, even (or especially) in republican nations like the United States.
