

2013-2014 HONORS COLLOQUIA

“Is American Influence Declining in the Middle East?”

Professor Brent Sasley
Department of Political Science

The onset on the Arab uprisings in 2011 has led to a cottage industry of analysis arguing that America’s influence in the Middle East is declining, if not disappearing. Dr. Sasley will discuss how this narrative of decline began, how closely it reflects reality on the ground, and the likely future direction of America’s position in the Middle East.
