

2015-2016 HONORS COLLOQUIA

The Power of One: The Impact of Near-Peer Mentoring on Bilingual/First Gen Mentors

Professor Carla Amaro-Jimenez
Department of Curriculum and Instruction

All of us have benefited at some point from a great mentor. But how are we changed when mentoring others? Come find out at the first Honors Colloquium of the 2015-2016 academic year. Dr. Carla Amaro-Jimenez, Assistant Professor of Curriculum and Instruction and specialist in Bilingual Education, will discuss her research on the effects of being a mentor on bilingual and first-generation students.
