

Military Social Work Graduate Certificate

- Prepares individuals to work with military service members, veterans and their families in clinical settings
- Critically appraise and integrate military social work interventions that incorporate the inherent resiliency of service members and their families in a clinical practice setting
- Current SSW graduate students, alumni, and community members with an MSW who meet admission requirements may earn the certificate.

Certificate Courses:

SOCW 5355: Military Social Work

CHOOSE 4 of 6 ELECTIVES:

SOCW 5361: Military Trauma

SOCW 5316: Stress, Crisis, and Coping

SOCW 5359: The Military Family

SOCW 5315: Brain & Behavior

SOCW 5354: Principles of Substance Use and Treatment

SOCW 5360: Treatment with Military Populations

Note: All certificate courses are designed for the working professional, with online and asynchronous options available.

*This certificate is available to non-degree seeking MSW graduates as a stand-alone certificate.

For admissions information visit www.uta.edu/ssw.