If you do not know who your assigned USL is, you may email Emily Rappaport (emily.rappaport@mavs.uta.edu). USLs & GSLs serve as advocates and communication facilitators for BSW & MSW students. Health committees are available at the Office of Health Services, where you can always drop in and ask questions, no appointment needed.

Need to meet with an advisor but there's no upcoming appointment available? Drop-in sessions are on a first come basis. Options are listed below:

Meet Dr. Regina Praetorius, LMSW-AP-S, the Director of Graduate Programs at UTA's School of Social Work. Dr. Praetorius is a licensed social worker with expertise in mental health and substance misuse. She and her team are dedicated to supporting students through their academic journey.

Join your field advisors' power hour here. Field forms are available here! Field Advising Helps students navigate their field placements.

With Love and Light,

Graduating MSW and BSW Students

With Earth. When we focus on providing for our planet it also benefits present and future well-being. Our health is an important aspect within our lives that should receive attention. The University of Texas at Arlington is committed to environmental sustainability and providing resources to support our community.

Financial abuse, also known as economic abuse, affects nearly 99% of total domestic violence cases. As April is National Financial Literacy month, we wanted to bring awareness to this critical issue. Financial abuse can happen to anyone, regardless of their socio-economic status. It is not about the victim's knowledge or ability, but rather, a pattern of financial control used by a perpetrator to maintain power in a relationship.

Fact: Financial abuse can happen to anyone regardless of gender, age, or ability.

Financial abuse is not about money, but about a victim's financial autonomy. It is often a tool used by perpetrators to maintain control in a relationship. Financial abuse can occur in any type of relationship, whether it is between romantic partners, caretakers and even roommates.

Fact: Financial abuse can happen to anyone, regardless of their socio-economic status. It is a common pattern used by perpetrators to maintain control and power in a relationship.

The Texas LCDC Licensing 2021 PDF for a chart that shows how different education levels can prepare you for the LCDC. If you're in your final semester and want to get started on applying to ASWB to take the LBSW or LMSW licensing exam, click here to apply.

Preparing you to compete for the career success of your dreams. The University of Texas at Arlington is committed to helping students prepare for lifelong career success by providing resources and support. Visit the Career Development Center here for help with your job search and career development.

The Courage to be Disliked is a book that explores the concept of personal happiness. Based on the theories of renowned psychologist Alfred Adler, this book guides you through the process of decluttering your mind and freeing yourself from the shackles of past experiences.

Now you can unlock your full potential and achieve true personal happiness. For more information, visit the School of Social Work Weekly Newsletter here.

Social Justice Spotlight: Helping the Earth also helps YOU! While Earth Day is around the corner, we thought it'd be great to share more about taking care of our planet. Earth 2024 is a year-long initiative to promote environmental sustainability and encourage students to make a positive impact on the world.

Follow UTA School of Social Work on: