Read the rest of the Dean's statement on 2021 Pride, we welcome the return of more in-person interactions and outdoor Pride commemorations. Advocates worried as social service agencies, counseling centers and other facilities serving LGBTQ+ youth and students shut their doors to in-person contact, LGBTQ+ people would have limited access to external support and resources. College students, would fall into a collective deep depression or worse, encounter unsafe conditions while social distancing in homes with disapproving parents or other relatives.

Primarily there were online activities and webinar speaking events that took place last year. Gatherings and outdoor celebrations. Coronavirus restrictions. Movement and the beginning of the organized gay rights movement. Stonewall as the catalyst for the modern Gay Liberation Movement and the beginning of the organized gay rights movement in New York City. Most consider Stonewall as the honor LGBTQ+ people who stood up for their rights.
