UNDERGRADUATE WEEKLY UPDATE

1/21/20

FROM THE DIRECTOR

Once again this semester, I will be sending this weekly newsletter to share information with you instead of sending numerous emails. I'm looking forward to Spring 2020 being amazing! This week is full of great ways to kick off this semester. I wish each of you continued success as you pursue this next challenging semester. Please don't hesitate to reach out to me via email or visit with me on Tuesdays, 10am-12noon in SSW Building A, room 311; I'm here to support you in your educational endeavors.

YOU MATTER

Building relationships is an important part of self-care. Try one of the events this week to meet new people or hangout with your friends.

Suicide will likely touch each of us in either our personal or professional lives. ASIST is my personal favorite intervention model. See flyer attached to learn more about a training in Dallas. -Dr. P

ASIST

Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training

If you want to feel more comfortable, confident and competent in helping to prevent the immediate risk of suicide, this two-day workshop is for you.

The United Nations Academic Impact and MCN proudly present the Millennium Fellowship.

This program convenes, challenges, and celebrates bold student leadership advancing UN goals on campus and in communities. Millennium Fellows hone skills, take concrete action, and earn a certificate of recognition from the United Nations Academic Impact and MCN. Undergraduates are invited to apply; the application is open on a rolling basis through April 2020 with early applications strongly recommended.

The Archer Fellowship Program at The University of Texas at Arlington

The Archer Fellowship Program provides University of Texas System undergraduate students the opportunity to live, learn, and intern in Washington, D.C., for a fall or spring semester. Archer Fellows have the opportunity to learn about policymaking and public service through a fulltime professional internship and in-residence UT Arlington courses taught by faculty in Washington, D.C.

Are you interested in how policy impacts your area of study or future profession? Do you have a passion for policy and/or public service? Learn more about this unparalleled educational and professional opportunity by attending an information session.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: February 15, 2020.
