SOCIAL JUSTICE SPOTLIGHT

International Women’s Day
March 8th

This Tuesday, on March 8th, we celebrate International Women’s Day. This day is recognized to honor the achievements and progress of women around the world. It also helps bring awareness to gender inequality and fundraising for women-focused charities. The 2022 theme is #BreakTheBias, which has us envision a world that is free from bias and discrimination and where everything is inclusive and diverse.

History

The history of International Women’s Day starts in 1908 when 15,000 women garment workers protested working conditions in New York. A year later, America celebrated its first National Women’s Day. In 1910, Clara Zetkin was attending the International Conference of Working Women in Copenhagen and suggested an International Women’s Day since 17 countries were represented there. It was unanimously approved.

Ways to Celebrate

- Donate to non-profits that benefit women
- Educate yourself about women rights
- Advocate for gender equality at your workplace
- Support women owned businesses
- Show your support on social media with #BreakTheBias
