SOCIAL JUSTICE SPOTLIGHT

On October 12th we celebrate National Freethought Day!

On this day, we are encouraged to think freely! This includes our thoughts of science, opinions on politics, poetry meaning, reasons, and ideas. Additionally, freethought day promotes concrete logic and evidence-based decision making. It provides an open dialogue to share opinions.

National freethought day dates all the way back to the Salem Witch Trials in 1692. This was when questionable evidence of the accused “witches” started to arise within the trials. Therefore, Governor Phips of Massachusetts omitted “spectral evidence” within the court. This decision saved many accused settlers’ during the trials.

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

Get to know our Student Leaders!

Hello, my name is Ana Catalina Giner. I'm excited to be part of the GSL program to help and assist other fellow students. I'm in the MSW program, and I will be pursuing mental health and substance misuse concentration. I was born and raised in the border city of El Paso, Texas. I obtained my Bachelors in Political Science and Philosophy from the University of Texas at El Paso . I currently work in an out-patient mental health clinic, where I have been fortunate to see the positive outcomes that social workers make every day. I look forward to assisting and advocating for our social work student community at UTA!

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Graduate Student Leader (GSL) Internship Program – Spring 2023

Are you looking for an internship placement where you can grow professionally, learn leadership skills, receive mentoring, work on important special projects to improve the MSW program, and help fellow MSW students? If so, we may have the opportunity you are looking for.

We are actively recruiting for GSL interns for the spring 2023 semester.

Foundation MSW students, students in the CAP specialty, mental health & substance misuse specialty and children & families specialty (split) can choose to intern within the School of Social Work Academic Affairs Department as a GSL. How cool is that?!?

If you are interested in this new initiative, here is what you need to do. Complete the GSL application:

CLICK HERE!

Keep in mind that you can still serve as a GSL even if you do not want to use this as your field placement. whether you are a volunteer GSL, or you use this as a field placement, you will provide much needed support to fellow MSW students. Interns will have additional opportunities to lead special projects and receive mentoring.

Applications open for Spring Field placement on October 3rd. The deadline to submit applications is November 25, 2022.

YOU MATTER

Focus on relationships instead of consumption

This is Step 6 in Deepak Chopra's 10 Steps to Wholeness. The statement is clear; no ambiguity whatsoever. Perhaps if we polled a random sampling of our community, 95% would say something to the effect, "Well, duh, of course that's true!" Because we value our relationships. Right?

I believe, in theory, we do. We are aware that relationships impact every aspect of our lives; I don't know anyone who, literally, lives alone on an island. Yet valuing our relationships is not the essence of this statement; rather it is a call to action.

If we examine the word 'focus', what meaning springs to mind? The thought for me is 'camera'. If we want to get a beautiful picture, we must take the time necessary to ensure the object is in focus. Certainly, we can point-and-shoot and maybe it will be okay, maybe one out of a thousand times it will be 'pretty darn good'. But we cannot expect to get an awesome picture if we do not spend the time necessary to ensure the object is "in focus".

In comparison, the same applies to our relationships. It takes focus, which requires time and attention. It calls us to action; a deliberate expending of our energy. We know this experientially. When we focus on our relationships, they flourish. When we spend time developing and nurturing our relationships, we compound our investment. Through our connection, we feel whole, happy, fulfilled. We feel true joy.

In contrast, when we focus on consumption the outcome is far different. In the short-term, the new house, new car or new gadget will bring us joy; no doubt. But the feeling is short-lived, and it can be very short, hence the conception of the phrase "buyer's remorse". Often, the focus on consumption only exacerbates the emptiness we feel inside and increase stress through increased credit card debt; and where is the joy in that?

Bronnie Ware wrote a powerful article titled "Top 5 Regrets of the Dying". Ware worked in palliative care for years and found there was a common focus of those who were reaching the end of their time in this space, i.e., dying was imminent. In one way or another, relationships wove through the regrets. We have heard people say, "live this day as if it were your last" and this article brought depth to the meaning of this statement. Now...this moment...we have an opportunity. What is your focus?
