SOCIAL JUSTICE SPOTLIGHT

On October 20th we celebrate National Youth Confidence Day!

On this day, the youths are encouraged to be confident! National Youth Confidence day celebrates the energy, spirit, and potential thoughts of the young ones.

Why encourage confidence within the youth? Because the youths are the future of society. Today’s youth will learn how to overcome obstacles and to manage negative thinking when learning how to become confident.

Joan of Arc was the start of this national celebration. She was only 19 years old when captured by Burgundian soldiers before her untimely death. She was a French heroine and saint before her time.

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

Get to know our Student Leaders!

Greetings! My name is Lecia Edwards and this is my first semester serving as a Graduate Student Leader (GSL) and as a GSL intern. I received my bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of North Texas in 2004. I am currently in my second year as a foundation student in the MSW Program, and I plan to pursue Direct Practice in Children and Families as my concentration. Currently married for 34 years, my husband and I are proud parents of three adult children ages 34, 32, and 29. I am also a Nana to my wonderful seven-year-old grandson who lives in Kansas City, MO. In my spare time, I enjoy reading, traveling, playing the piano, shopping, and driving my "muscle car". As a longtime special education administrator in a public school district, I have a passion for helping others. My work facilitates the development of children by giving them access to the resources they need to excel in the classroom, and also performing tasks outside of school. My goal is to become a school social worker and continue to serve the needs of children with the goal of helping them reach pliable goals and assist them with the best chance to succeed in life regardless of their circumstances. I am excited about completing my internship with the program and honored to serve as a GSL. I look forward to supporting other students during OUR journey through the UTA MSW program

Interested in becoming a GSL? Click here!

CLICK HERE!

Keep in mind that you can still serve as a GSL even if you do not want to use this as your field placement. whether you are a volunteer GSL, or you use this as a field placement, you will provide much needed support to fellow MSW students. Interns will have additional opportunities to lead special projects and receive mentoring.

Applications open for Spring Field placement on October 3rd. The deadline to submit applications is November 25, 2022.

YOU MATTER

Ethics and Professionalism within the Branch of Social Work

What is Ethics? What ethical qualities are needed to become a good professional? How do we ethically help solve problems?

When it comes to helping clients, we as Social Workers must understand how to use ethics to find solutions. Ethics is defined as knowing what is morally right or wrong. Values is defined as what is taught within our culture, conformities, groups, principles, or as an individual.

As social workers, we must look at the NASW Code of Ethics for perspective. The NASW Code of Ethics explains professional ethics within Social Work. Ethical Principles within the NASW Code of ethics are based off the core values of:

- Service
- Importance of Human Relations
- Integrity
- Social Justice
- Competence
- Dignity and Worth of the Person

Legal Issues concerning ethical standards are minimum standard that society will accept. It is also related to federal, state and municipal standards of practice that is regulated by law.

Most laws within the branch of social work are considered "virtue" ethics. In a nutshell, virtue ethics reflects a person's set of values.

As future Social Workers, it is necessary to understand our clients needs. When it comes to any situation that a client may face, it's necessary to find solutions within ethics. For without ethics there will be a lack of moral judgement within human relationships.

As Aristotle once stated:

"Educating the mind without educating the heart is no education at all."

Best Regards,

Andwelah Givens
