December 13, 2021

Dear Student,

The University of Texas at Arlington looks forward to welcoming you to campus this spring. Please be assured that the health and safety of our students, and the quality of instruction and research remain our highest priorities.

In support of these priorities, in spring 2022 we will continue normal operations with classes being provided primarily in person. Social distancing will be encouraged when possible and other measures will be implemented to maintain a safe, healthy environment. This letter may assist you with successfully completing the visa process and entry to the United States.

For additional information and resources, please consider visiting these University of Texas at Arlington sites:

Once again, the University of Texas at Arlington community looks forward to welcoming you and sends best wishes for your arrival to campus.

Sincerely,

Teik C. Lim, Ph.D.
President ad interim
