

University Tutorial & Supplemental Instruction provides academic support services for a variety of classes. Supplemental Instruction or SI is a structured group study session to help students understand class concepts and acquire successful learning strategies. Tutoring helps students develop and grow strong study habits by working one-on-one with a Tutor.

About the position:

Peer Educators provide academic support for current UTA students in selected classes. There are two positions available for UTSI - Tutor & SI Leader. UTSI Staff will take preference of position into account but will place Peer Educators based on need of the program.

Appointment-based Tutors work individually with students. Tutors must be available a minimum of 10 hours per week, however, hours are not guaranteed and dependent upon the number of appointments booked by students.

SI Leaders work in groups with students. SI Leaders must be available to work 10.5 hours each week; responsibilities include attending lecture, faculty meetings, planning sessions, and leading session.

All Peer Educators must attend a mandatory training at the beginning of the semester and ongoing trainings throughout the semester. Other duties as assigned.
